Fellow P&DARCS Members

Well, the year end is upon us. Most of us will think, “what a year it was” and we’d probably be correct. But in essence we have endured a period which none of us anticipated and we have managed come through the other side.

On behalf of your P&DARCS committee, I would like to wish all our members and their families a safe, joyous Christmas and a happy new year.

If you are catching up with family or friends, it will be a time to celebrate all the good things we have and the wonderful place in which we live.

For 2022, I look forward to seeing all of us flying again and joining in the camaraderie that makes our club the great organisation that it is.

Clear skies to all
